MAUI, HAWAII

Sweeping across the oceanfront with breathtaking panoramas in all directions, the Jewel of Kahana is no ordinary beach house—even for Hawaii. The 9,500-square-foot residence and detached guest quarters were magically masterminded to house not only high-tech marvels but high-voltage drama. And that they do. From voluminous poolside entertainment venues boasting a bar lounge with 60-inch TV to eight oceanfront king suites, all luxuriously furnished, each setting unfolds a stunning sight of ultracontemporary island chic. $14,900,000 Furnished.
